

TOEBI 2014

Opportunities

University of Nottingham, 18 October 2014

Highfield House

Programme

9.00 - 10.00 am Registration & Coffee

10.00 - 10.15 Welcome

10.15 - 11.00 Teaching Old English: new approaches

Chair: Christina Lee

10.15 - 10.30 Judith Kaup (University of Bochum): 'Teaching Old English Poetry: An Approach Based on Stageability'

10.30 - 10.55 Sara Pons-Sanz (University of Westminster): 'The London Anglo-Saxon Symposium: Academic Papers for a Non-Academic Audience'

11.05 - 12.00 TOEBI Roundtable

Chair: Tom Birkett

Hana Videen, Kathryn Maude, Carl Kears, Rebecca Hardie, Victoria Walker, Francesca Allfrey, Francesca Brookes (all King's College, London): 'Unlocking the Wordhord: opportunities for Old English outside the University'

With a response from Clare Lees (King's College London)

12.00 - 1.30 Lunch (in Cloisters)

[12.30 - 1.30 TOEBI Committee meeting]

1.30 – 2.30 Interconnections with Science

Chair: Hugh Magennis

1.30 – 2.00 Stefanie Künzel & Christina Lee (University of Nottingham):

'Bald, bacteria and (anti-)biotics: The Nottingham Research cluster on infectious disease'

2.00 - 2.30 James Paz (University of Manchester):

'Words that Matter: Teaching Old English Literature and Science'

2.35 – 3.35 Old English in Research Projects

Chair: Paul Cavill

2.35 – 3.05 Marilina Cesario (Queen's University Belfast):

'The Signs of the Weather in Anglo-Saxon England'

3.05 – 3.35 Eleanor Rye (University of Nottingham):

'Piddles and Warthills: using Old English to investigate Britain's place-names'

3.35 - 3.50 Coffee

3.50 - 4.15 TOEBI AGM