

TOEBI

Teachers of Old English in Britain and Ireland

November General Meeting

TOEBI's November General Meeting will take place on Saturday, 22nd November 1997, in the Queen's Building, Emmanuel College, Cambridge, from 10.30am to 5.00pm. A preliminary list of those attending is appended. The (revised) programme for the day is as follows:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| 10.30-11.00
Harrods Room | Coffee and registration |
| 11.00-12.00
Lecture Theatre | Session 1: 'Is there life after a PhD?'
Speakers: Jennifer Neville (Starting teaching)
Christine Rauer (Working on a research project)
Richard Dance (Beginning a Research Fellowship) |
| 12.00-1.00
Lecture Theatre | Session 2: 'Interdisciplinary Approaches'
Speakers: John Hines (Archaeology)
Richard North (Old Norse)
Hugh Magennis (Middle English) |
| 1.00-2.30
Harrods Room | Lunch |
| 2.30-4.00
Lecture Theatre | Session 3: 'The Future of Old English Teaching'
An open discussion will follow preliminary remarks
by Michael Lapidge and Don Scragg |
| 4.00-4.30
Harrods Room | Tea |
| 4.30-5.00
Lecture Theatre | AGM |

Throughout the day there will be a small selection of books from Boydell & Brewer on show in the Green Room. There will also be a small exhibition of early printed books on Anglo-Saxon topics displayed in the Emmanuel College Library.

Enclosed are two (not vastly helpful) maps of Cambridge and Emmanuel College. There will be a strictly limited number of parking spaces available in College itself, for those able to enter by the Library gates (down Camden Court, off Park Terrace). Previous visitors to College should note that entry through the Library gates is now controlled electronically; I shall ask the Porters to switch off the system for a brief period before the meeting starts.